

ABOUT THE FACILITATORS

Ulrich Stander holds a BA LLB and LLM and is an admitted advocate. He has been practising as an employment law and employment relations lawyer for over twenty years. Ulrich focuses on advising, conflict resolution, mediation, negotiations and leadership training. He acts in an advisory capacity on employment law strategy and policy-making for corporations in financial services, media, fishing, retail, e-commerce, transport and other industries.

Ulrich is also the co-designer of leadership development programs such as Leaders@Work and Leading for Results, which have been successfully presented over the past 9 years. He has participated in various sessions on the Harvard Law School Negotiation Programme. Ulrich has co-authored two books on employment law, Dismissal – Principles, Check-lists and Forms (2004) and Effective Workplace Solutions: Employment Law from a business perspective (2016), and occasionally presents guest lectures on employment law and employee relations programmes at the University of Stellenbosch Business School. He is an accredited commercial and labour mediator of the ADR Group (London).

WP Moolman has an LLB degree and is an admitted attorney. He served his articles at CK Attorneys, whilst also practising as a consultant at Labourman Consultancy, during which period WP specialised in employment law.

Thereafter, WP worked as a Senior Associate for Kirchmanns Inc and as a consultant for Global Business Solutions.

He has broad-ranging experience in the field, including experience of litigation at the labour court and representation at the CCMA and bargaining council proceedings, facilitating training and consulting on all aspects of employment law and employment relations.

WP joined Maserumule in June 2019. Business areas include consultation and training on employment law and employment relations, advising on workplace policy and processes, initiating and chairing disciplinary hearings.
